Traditional Morgans • Traditional Dressage
For any discipline For every rider

Foxwin Farm has been breeding quality Morgan horses for over 40 years, intentionally choosing to work with an American horse unmatched in intelligence, integrity, and honest willingness to work and grow with training, the perfect horse for any sporting discipline.

For these same 40 years, Foxwin Farm has chosen the path of classical dressage in the tradition of the European masters, training horses and riders in the fundamentals of a balanced seat and harmony of motion, a foundation from which both horse and rider can emerge prepared for any discipline.
