New York State Morgan Horse Society

Miss Ginny Wickham of Brewerton became the first New York State winner of the horsemastership achievement award of the American Morgan Horse Association when she was presented her award by Lawrence A. Appley of Hamilton, Chairman of the Board of AMHA.

Ginny, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Armond Wickham, is majoring in horse husbandry at the State University Agricultural and Technical Institute at Morrisville.

Ginny and Fiddler's Bankroll have been familiar entrants in English pleasure classes. She also is preparing Fiddler's Gusto for pleasure driving classes in 1974. Miss Wickham and Bankroll also have marshaled at the New York State Sire Harness Races the last three years.

Ginny, now 17, has been a member of the New York State Morgan Horse Society for two years. She also has been princess for two years, in 1971 and 1972. She was AMHA Youth of the Month in October 1972.

Her duties on the racetrack received mention in Jeanne Mellin's "The Morgan Horse Handbook", which also includes a picture of Ginny and Fiddler's Bankroll.
