A fond "Thanks" to Betty Burgess for covering our lovely Morgans, their doings and their families. It is a hard and dedicated job and we appreciated it.

I am delighted to be your new correspondent. Send me your news or call me — have pencil and pad ready.

June, being the Youth Issue, I would like to give these kids a lot of credit for their dedication to the Morgan.

Jane Murphy, Georgetown, N. Y., President of the New York Morgan Horse Society's Junior Club, reports a busy year for their newly formed club. Several Junior meetings have been held under the direction of Mrs. Mary Passenger, Newburgh, N. Y.

The youth group planned and held a horse clinic with Joe Vanorio as instructor. They played an important part in assisting with the many duties of running the New York All-Morgan show and they hope to become more active in club affairs in 1971.

Club Vice President Nancy Kipp would like to thank all you people for sending her cards while she visited the hospital by way of the N. Y. International

Our sincere sympathy to Mrs. Barker and her family, Rochester, N. Y. on the death of her husband, Donald Barker. He died January 26th. Mr. Barker supported and loved the Morgan horse.

Big-Little Morgan Farm, Esperance, reports that B-L Enchantress will be on the circuit under Harold Childs.

Diane and Gary Sweet, formerly Gloversville, N. Y. have moved to their new farm in Fort Plain, N. Y.

Evelyn James, Delhi, reports they sold their yearling, Catskill Wiseguy (Tiger Allen x O-A-Ka Frosty Lady) to Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Wormoth and Kim Galley, Walton, N. Y.

Another happy teenager, Linda Ruffo, Manwar, N. J., found her Morgan in Delhi. Matteson's Panarama Rhapsody (Kingston x Lou's Mary Star), a 2-yr.-old has gone home with her to live at Tall Oaks Farm, N. J.

The James' Bald Mt. Gay Holiday (Easter Twilight x June Morgan) was put down due to an old injury. They still have five of his daughters.

Also, Lloyd and Glenna James lost their weanling filly (Windercrest Chief x Catskill Gay Connie).

Cheryl Farabaugh, Ellicottville, N. Y., a new member, has bought two Morgans from her grandfather's estate, D. F. Switzler. He bred and raised the Trophy Morgans. She purchased Trophy's Cupid, (Trophy x Ruthven's Nancy Ann) and her yearling filly by UVM Pennfield.

Rosemarie Papayanopoulos is ecstatic over Merry Bellsinda's offspring, and has leased Bellsinda to Fallbrook Farm, Mr. and Mrs. Robert DeGrazia.

Great year for Joyce Bossong! Out of three Morgans, their two-year old gelding, Green Meads Dr. Tom, was Grand Champion Gelding at the N. Y. International and their mare, Green Meads Desire, was Reserve Grand Champion High Score Mare of N. Y. State. And now their filly, Blue Bridle Justina, is bay and looks just like her dam, Desire. Some people have all the luck!

Linda and Larry Scripa have purchased a new filly from Gerald Ashby. Ashwood Melissa is sired by Windercrest Gallant out of Ashwood Donlyn.

Sis and Bill Roesch report that Pixy Payet is under the leather with Linda Reczonico and Isaill Empress, 2-yr.-old is doing nicely in long lines.

Dr. Brad Starr and Broadwall Janie are going to the American Institute of Dressage at Saratoga in July. Glamorgan Christina and Glamorgan Finesse are also being worked for dressage.

Pete and Dawn Murken, Belfast, N. Y. just acquired their first Morgan. We have a feeling that Naturita, bay mare, will not be their last.

Ann Farley Wendt, Chappaqua, N. Y., has just purchased Roman Prince Ranier, a Morgan colt from William Lutz, Jr., Rome, N. Y. and placed him in training with Margaret Caramore of the Three Sisters Stables.

David Perrott has bought UVM Rival (UVM Flash x Goddess) from Em-pyrean Hills.

Pecos hit his 27th birthday, March 6, and is owned by Springervale Farm, Newburgh, N. Y.

Carol Thoms and her husband have bought a 75 acre farm near Clyde, N.Y. They sold the lovely two-year-old filly, Skyloft Tiffany, to Susan Hanford of Pittsford, N. Y. Both Sue and Tiffany are in training with Gill Carr. Carol's husband, Dick is training their 2-yr.-old Skyloft Desiree to harness.

Bald Mt. Farms, Arlington, Vt., sold Bald Mt. Jeremy (Bar-T-Vigilman x Bald Mt. Belle) to George Greenough and Robert Mowatt, III, Whitehall, N. Y. They also sold Arnona Sheila, (Nekomia's Archie x Polly Hudson) to Lyman Orcutt. She is in foal to Bald Mt. Cloud.

Dr. Edward Murphy and family, Georgetown, N. Y. have a fabulous place high on a hill top. Sue Venier's Kadenvale Don is there and a magnificent animal he is; Claire has her hands full but one trip through her barn and a look at her Morgans and you know it is worth it.

Please send me your news before the 15th of each month so that I can have it in by the deadline. Trust you all will excuse your misspelled names, etc., and keep sending news. Happy Morganing!
